

ITALIAN + INTERNSHIP IN MILAN

Useful information for a good start

General Information & Costs

Enrolment

Fashion Marketing & Business

Interior Design & Architecture

Communications & Digital Marketing

Business Administration & Start Up

General Information & Costs

The programme ITALIAN + INTERNSHIP IN MILAN allows you to combine learning our language with a work placement within an Italian organisation.

This is an ideal opportunity to use and practice Italian in a hands-on, real-world setting, improving your language skills while also enhancing your professional skillset, thanks to daily interactions in stimulating and creative environments.

The programme consists of an intensive Italian language course with 4 lessons daily at our school, 5 days a week and an internship in Milan in your field of interest. No visa is required for non-EU students attending programmes lasting 3 months or less.

Our programmes

2 months of course + 1 month of internship = 2450 euro

3 months of course + 2 months of internship = 3000 euro

3 months of course + 3 months of internship = 3500 euro

4 months of course + 2 months of internship = 3300 euro

6 months of course + 3 months of internship = 4200 euro

9 months of course + 3 months of internship = 5200 euro

Enrolment

- Applications must be made at least 2 months prior to the proposed start date.
- Participants should have a B1-level command of the Italian language.
- For non-beginners, a test to assess your level of Italian must be arranged (in-person or online) by writing to ilcentro@ilcentro.net or calling us at +39 02 86.90.554.
- After enrolment, a CV should be sent at to us specifying your field of interest for the internship.
- The Italian language course must consist of 4 lessons per day, 5 days per week. No visa is required for non-EU students attending programmes lasting 3 months or less.

An internship in Fashion Marketing and Fashion Business is one of the most popular choices, thanks to the presence of so many prominent fashion houses here in Milan. Placements can take place in fashion showrooms, in PR agencies or alongside influencers. Participants will gain practical experience in activities such as social media marketing, content creation (copy, posts, graphics, photos) or assisting fashion buyers in purchasing activities.

The type of organisation can range from small/medium, to freelancers (such as influencers), to medium/large showrooms attached to important brands.

Fashion Marketing & Business

Internship area	Fashion Marketing & Fashion Business
Prospective career paths	Merchandise, Fashion Public Relations, Copywriter, Editor, Advertising Executive, Marketing Manager, Sales Representative, Market Research Analyst, Brand Manager, Social Media Coordinator, Event Manager, Buyer
Ideal age	Minimum 18 years, Maximum 30 years
Minimum requirements	1 year of university-level education in communications, marketing or business studies.
Start date and attendance	Programmes commence on Mondays. The start date and duration will be determined based on the type and length of language course and internship programme chosen. The working hours of the internship generally take place between Monday-Friday, although particular campaigns/events/fashion shows may necessitate out-of-hours presence.
Notice period required and CV submission	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Applications must be made at least 2 months prior to the proposed start date. • Participants should have a B1-level command of the Italian language. • For non-beginners, a test to assess your level of Italian must be arranged (in-person or online) by writing to liceo@lecentro.net or calling us at +39 02 86.90.554. • After enrolment, a CV should be sent at to us specifying your field of interest for the internship. • The Italian language course must consist of 4 lessons per day, 5 days per week. No visa is required for non-EU students attending programmes lasting 3 months or less.

Interior Design & Architecture

Interior Design & Architecture

Internships in Interior Design and Architecture take place within architecture firms or with independent architects. Participants become involved with daily activities within the firm and depending on their level of experience and ability can assist with ongoing projects and client meetings, thus gaining experience in the field and management of clients, deadlines etc.

Internship area	Interior Design & Architecture
Prospective career paths	Architect, Architectural Technologist, CAD Technician, Interior & Spatial Designer, Urban Designer
Ideal age	Minimum 18 years, Maximum 30 years
Minimum requirements	At least 1 year of university-level studies in architecture or interior design, AND good working knowledge of programmes such as AutoCAD, AutoCAD 3D, Rhinoceros, Vector works, InDesign etc
Start dates and attendance	Programmes commence on Mondays. The start date and duration will be determined based on the type and length of language course and internship programme chosen. The working hours of the internship generally take place Monday-Friday.
Notice period for enrolment and CV submission	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Applications must be made at least 2 months prior to the proposed start date.• Participants should have a B1-level command of the Italian language.• For non-beginners, a test to assess your level of Italian must be arranged (in-person or online) by writing to licentro@licentro.net or calling us at +39 02 86.90.554.• After enrolment, a CV should be sent at to us specifying your field of interest for the internship.• The Italian language course must consist of 4 lessons per day, 5 days per week. No visa is required for non-EU students attending programmes lasting 3 months or less.

Communications & Digital Marketing

Communications & Digital Marketing

The internship in Communications & Digital Marketing takes place within PR firms offering these services, alongside established influencers or within in-house marketing departments of large firms. Participants will gain experience in market and client research, social media marketing, content creation including copy, posts, graphic and images.

The majority of the firms are small-medium businesses or freelancers (influencers).

Internship area	Communications & Digital Marketing
Prospective career paths	Advertising/Promotions/Marketing Manager, Sales Advisor, Editor, Copywriter, Graphic Designer, Market Research Analyst, Product Development Manager, PR, Project Manager, Business Developer, Event Manager
Ideal age	Minimum 18 years, Maximum 30 years
Minimum requirements	1 year of university-level education in communications, marketing or business studies.
Start dates and attendance	Programmes commence on Mondays. The start date and duration will be determined based on the type and length of language course and internship programme chosen. The working hours of the internship generally take place between Monday-Friday, although out-of-hours presence may be requested in the event of special events.
Notice period required and CV submission	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Applications must be made at least 2 months prior to the proposed start date.• Participants should have a B1-level command of the Italian language.• For non-beginners, a test to assess your level of Italian must be arranged (in-person or online) by writing to ilcentro@ilcentro.net or calling us at +39 02 86.90.554.• After enrolment, a CV should be sent at to us specifying your field of interest for the internship.• The Italian language course must consist of 4 lessons per day, 5 days per week. No visa is required for non-EU students attending programmes lasting 3 months or less.

Business Administration & Start Up

Business Administration & Start Up

The internship in Business Administration and Start Up takes place in companies and start-ups which provide services to national and international clients. Interns will be involved in activities including helping new clients to develop business plans, collaborating with tutors to develop outsourcing strategies, conducting international market research, attending meetings, preparation of documents and grant applications for international and European funding opportunities and conducting research on emerging markets and trends.

Internship area	Business Administration & Start Up
Prospective career paths	Business Manager, Project Management, Accountant, Business Development, Data Analyst, Supply Chain Management, Business Counselor, Operations Management
Ideal age	Minimum 18 years, Maximum 30 years
Minimum requirements	1 year of university-level education in international business, business studies or marketing.
Start dates and attendance	Programmes commence on Mondays. The start date and duration will be determined based on the type and length of language course and internship programme chosen. The working hours of the internship generally take place between Monday-Friday
Notice period required and CV submission	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Applications must be made at least 2 months prior to the proposed start date.• Participants should have a B1-level command of the Italian language.• For non-beginners, a test to assess your level of Italian must be arranged (in-person or online) by writing to licentro@licentro.net or calling us at +39 02 86.90.554.• After enrolment, a CV should be sent at to us specifying your field of interest for the internship.• The Italian language course must consist of 4 lessons per day, 5 days per week. No visa is required for non-EU students attending programmes lasting 3 months or less.

Via Ponte Vetere 21 - 20121 Milano

<https://scuola-italiano-milano.com>

e-mail: ilcentro@ilcentro.net

Tel.: +39 02 86.90.554